

Each wrong guess removes a petal - try to finish before they're all gone

CLUE

A garden rose named for the fragrance of tea.

— — — — —

CROSS OUT EACH LETTER AS YOU GUESS IT

How to Play

- Read the clue aloud, then guess letters one at a time.
- Cross out each letter guessed - right or wrong, it is fine either way.
- A correct guess fills in a blank; a wrong guess removes a petal.
- It is fine to offer a hint or the first letter if it helps.